

Safety Talk™ Radio

www.firesafetyeducator.com

Does your fire department or organization have a successful fire or life safety program? Do you have a fire or life safety story that needs to be told? If so, we want to hear from you!

Showcase and share your efforts with other fire departments and organizations from across the nation on Safety Talk™ Radio. This broadcast, hosted by Firefighter Dayna Hilton, broadcasts bi-weekly live on Blog Talk Radio.

Hilton volunteers and donates her time to promote fire safety on the national level. A firefighter since 2000, her life's passion is to keep everyone fire safe.

Booking Information

The following information is needed to book your fire and life safety episode. Please provide the following:

1) Contact Information

- a) Contact name and organization, telephone number and email address
- b) Contact time zone

2) Information about your fire department or organization

3) Information about fire or life safety project(s)

4) Photo

- 1) Please email one quality head shot (.jpg file)
- 2) Logo of organization (.gif or .jpg file)

5) Five sample questions for the host to ask

Prepare to have listeners call in

Be prepared to reach out to other public educators, members of the fire service and other organizations. Lines will be open for them to call in on the live show. The show will also be recorded, so if they miss the show, they can listen in at a later time.

Contact Dayna Hilton at daynark@gmail.com for more information